EXPLANATION
ON
REGIONAL REGULATIONS OF SUKOHARJO DISTRICT
NUMBER 17 OF 2017
ABOUT
IMPROVING THE SOCIAL WELFARE OF ELDERLY AGE

I. GENERAL

Seniors have deep abilities and experience navigate social life. These abilities and experiences will be useful if used in aspects of social, national and state life. Elderly people have the same rights and obligations as other citizens in all aspects of social life which are based on Pancasila and the 1945 Constitution of the Republic of Indonesia.

Based on the provisions of Law Number 13 of 1998 concerning the Welfare of the Elderly and Government Regulation Number 43 of 2004 concerning the Implementation of Efforts to Improve the Welfare of the Elderly, it contains various efforts to improve the welfare of the elderly through coaching, empowerment, services, social assistance and social security and so on, all of which are expected to be able to increase human dignity, because it is hoped that seniors can grow in self-confidence and be able to get out of the cycle of dependency and develop independently, so that they can increasingly play a role and develop in their community environment.

The role of the Regional Government, community, family and business world is the foundation for the independence of Potential and Non-Potential Elderly to increase their level of welfare. This very important and noble role can be realized and carried out if all stakeholders are committed to it. Therefore, a legal umbrella is needed in the form of a Regional Regulation that is able to accommodate all problems related to the social welfare of the elderly, is able to provide integrated, holistic and comprehensive services, and firmly gives a mandate to institutions to carry out policy coordination, guidance and supervision, and a mandate to institutions to provide services. Apart from that, Regional Regulations can also open up the involvement of non-governmental institutions and the community to participate in improving the social welfare of the elderly.

The aim of regulating the social welfare of the elderly is to fulfill their physical needs, mental needs and social needs as well as provide protection and empower their potential, so that the elderly have a useful, quality life and can extend their life expectancy in the productive period, achieve independence and get closer to God. The Almighty.
